BOARD OF MANAGERS MEETING

President James M. Ogden called the first meeting of the new officers of the Board of Managers for July 19, 1929, the meeting being held at the Columbia Club in Indianapolis. Mr. Joel A. Baker was re-elected secretary-treasurer for the year 1929-30. It was decided to have the mid-year meeting about the last of January, 1930, the meeting to be held at Indianapolis. The president was authorized to set the exact time at the convenience of the chief speaker of the meeting. In view of the increasing clerical work of the Committee on Citizenship, the Board authorized the president to select a secretary to assist the chairman of the Citizenship Committee, and appropriated $400 for this purpose. It was the general agreement that the district meeting is one of the best means of building up membership in the State Bar Association. The Board of Managers adopted as a policy for the year 1929-30 the plan of holding Board of Managers meetings in conjunction with district meetings as far as possible.

The October meeting of the Board of Managers was held in Bloomington on October 5, 1929, the members of the Board being the guests of the Monroe County Bar Association. President Ogden announced that James W. Beck, Representative in Congress from Pennsylvania and former United States Solicitor General, will be the principal speaker at the mid-winter meeting of the State Bar Association. Mr. Beck will discuss the Webster-Haynes debate. Another feature of the mid-winter meeting will be a debate on the proposed Constitutional convention for Indiana. Vice-President W. W. Miller reported that the work of organizing for an intensive drive for membership was progressing satisfactorily and that a special effort will be made to increase the membership before the mid-year meeting. Mr. Baker, Secretary-Treasurer, was authorized to make special trips to various cities where there has been a noticeable decrease in active membership.

The Board decided to hold the 1930 summer meeting of the State Bar Association at Bloomington next July. The Board also voted to hold its next meeting in conjunction with the meeting of the Second District Association which will be held in Vincennes December 12th. The members attended the Notre Dame-Indiana football game as guests of Indiana University.

THE 1929 MEETING AT GARY

Members of the Indiana State Bar Association who have been regular attendants of the annual meetings for years agree that the 1929 meeting was one of the most stimulating from the standpoint of professional interest, as well as one of the most enjoyable socially, in the history of the association. The Gary Bar Association, under the leadership of Mr. W. W. Miller, left nothing undone that would add to the enjoyment of the visiting members. Secretary Joel A. Baker estimated that the Thursday evening session at the Gary Beach Pavilion had the largest attendance of any previous session at any meeting of the Bar Association. The fish fry dinner with the accompanying program of excellent entertainment, and the trips through the steel mills and Duneland were high points in the hospitality of the Gary Bar Association and will be remembered long and pleasantly by the visiting members of the Bar Association.
